

Town of Springdale News

December 2014

From the Mayor's Desk

The holidays are upon us and it looks like Springdale has had a very good year. The tourists have slowed down. The tree lighting was a great success and the town is all decorated up for the season. There are many activities planned for December and I hope you take advantage of them. I know when I go down river there is a lot of talk about how nice it is up in Springdale.

This year I am sending out an invitation to all as I host an relaxing evening Tuesday the 9th of December at 7:00 PM. There will be light food, drinks, music and fun as we all mingle and enjoy the spirit of the season. I will be hosting it at the Bumbleberry Theatre and hope you all come. It is casual and we will be having an Ugly Christmas Sweater contest. Pull out those sweaters and the best (or worse) one will win a prize. There is a piano and also a karaoke DJ that night. So if you would like to perform the stage will be lit up for you to ring out those Christmas songs. For those of us a little more shy we will be singing carols together. If you have a favorite Christmas story or poem you can present that also. It is going to be a casual evening for all to get together and enjoy a community event. Again, everyone is welcome.

May this holiday season bring you and yours the best this year. Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays.

Mayor Stan Smith

Springdale Historical Structure Relocation

In only its second month, the newly formed Historic Preservation Commission is already making an impact in Springdale! Thanks to the generosity of Tom Burns from Harvest House, the Town was able to acquire a 10' x 12' historic cottonwood structure and relocate it to a spot behind Town Hall.

With the help of Allen Lee, Chairman Joseph Harper led a team of volunteers to carefully move and place the historic structure in an area for all to access.

The structure is of unknown origin, but Commissioner Stephen Roth believes it was built circa 1880. Above the doorway are lead pencil inscriptions including the signatures of Alonso Russell and Frank Petty, both prominent local pioneers.

Over time the Commission will construct a more suitable foundation, landscape the surrounding area and conduct continued research on the structure's origin and owners. It is definitely a meaningful part of the area's history and one that should be seen to be appreciated.
