Memorandum

To: Mayor, Town Council
From: Rick Wixom
Date: January 20, 2023
Re: January 26, 2023 Town Council Meeting
Review of Capital Priorities

Each year in late January the Council, the management team along with other team members with specific budget responsibilities review the lists of upcoming capital priorities. These lists include projects, major equipment, personnel, consultants, RAP tax and public art. This review assists our departments in preparing department budget requests for the upcoming year and planning for short-term projects and needs.

In this effort, the Council's role is to provide guidance and direction on the priorities (projects, equipment, personnel, etc.) presented. As with previous documents, the management team has spent time reviewing these lists. As with the budget, we believe that bringing to the Council a more finalized document will allow the Council to more efficiently use your time to review the priorities and planned work. The Council may add or remove items from these lists as it considers the Town's priorities.

The lists are organized with the following formatting, as has been previously done:

- Fiscal year 2024 (year one).
This list includes projects that will be ready to implement as of the new fiscal year, have undergone design or engineering work, and have had costs estimated.
- Fiscal year 2025 (year two).
Includes projects that we intend to move to the year one list next year. Costs may not be entirely known, and design/engineering may be included on the year one list.
- Fiscal year 2026 (year three).
Includes projects under planning for implementation in the near future.
- Over three years.
Includes project ideas which are not fully developed, engineered, or prioritized into the upcoming three years.
- And a list which includes ideas found in the general plan or master plans which are not yet developed into specific projects.

This format is used for all categories (projects, equipment, personnel, consultants, etc.). The layout of the capital priorities also includes notations as necessary on funding or financing, estimated costs, and budget accounts.

We use the year one, two, and three lists to proactively manage projects and other needs from year to year. For instance, in one section of the document you may find design/engineering work for projects to be implemented in a following year. The Council is able to utilize this format to consider funding needs not only for the upcoming year, but future years as well.

Please note that we are looking at ways to improve visibility and planning for projects in the long term (over 3 years). In determining priorities for future projects, it is useful to review the general plan, adopted master plans (such as culinary water, secondary water, parks, etc.), specific planning documents (such as the streetscape plan, active transportation plan, etc.) and resource documents such as the FCAOG natural hazards mitigation plan.

As the budget work for FY24 proceeds, we'll finalize cost estimates for year one projects, assemble department budget requests, and prepare information for the Council's review later this spring.

Memorandum

To: Mayor and Councilmembers
From: Darci Carlson, Town Clerk
Date: January 23, 2023
Re: Appointment of Art Review Board members

The Art Review Board is set to convene on Tuesday, February 7th to recommend the final designs for the “Art is Electric” public art project.

In brief, the Art Review Board oversees the Town's public art program and makes recommendations to the Planning Commission regarding murals on private properties and art on public grounds. The Art Review Board comprises five members - three are "permanent" positions, and two are "rotating" positions. A description of the positions, and the recommended appointments, are as follows:

- two permanent positions from the local Arts and Humanities Council
 - Lanell Dike
 - Vicki Bell
- one permanent position from the Town Council
 - Lisa Zumpft
- two rotating positions, filled by artists with expertise in a particular medium
 - Mike Alltucker
 - Lyman Whitaker

The Council is asked to consider the nominees above and appoint them to the Art Review Board. The Art Review Board members will be asked to review submissions from local artists and recommend the final designs to the Planning Commission. The final designs will be converted into vinyl wraps to cover several electrical boxes in Town.
